

Haseeb Yousaf

Call: 2010

Practice Areas

- Crime
- Extradition

Personal Statement

Haseeb is regularly instructed to represent clients in the Crown, Magistrates' and Youth Courts in a wide range of criminal matters such as serious violence, public order, dishonesty and drugs offences.

Haseeb is often instructed on a privately funded basis, particularly in relation to road traffic matters, and has recently secured acquittals for clients charged with failing to provide information, drink driving and careless driving.

Haseeb has a growing extradition practice and is experienced in drafting skeleton arguments as well as dealing with contested hearings.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Haseeb worked for various solicitors' firms in their criminal and civil litigation departments. This has provided Haseeb with an invaluable insight into the solicitors' profession and understand the expectations of those instructing.

Education

Law, LLB (Hons) - University of Liverpool (2.1)

Bar Vocational Course - Manchester Metropolitan University (Very Competent)

Memberships

The Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn

Languages

Urdu

French (basic)

Great James Street Chambers
37 Great James Street
London WC1N 3HB
Tel: 0207 440 4949
Web: www.greatjames.co.uk

